Behold, God is Doing Something New

"Do not call to mind the former things,
Or consider things of the past.
Behold, I am going to do something new..." Isaiah 43:18-19 (NASB)

Devotional Thought & Prayer

As August ends, God invites us to release what is behind and trust Him for what is ahead. God calls us to walk forward with renewed courage and great expectation, knowing that He is already preparing the way ahead. We do not have to be held by what was dry, delayed, or difficult, because the Lord is already making a way ahead. His grace refreshes tired places, His wisdom lights the path, and His presence gives us strength for every step. As we keep our eyes on Him, this new season becomes a testimony of hope, growth, and God's faithful power at work in our lives.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, I thank You for the promise that I do not have to be bound by my past. Help me to release every hurt, failure, and regret into Your hands. Lord, open my eyes and lead me forward to see the new thing You are doing in my life, even when it begins as a small seed of hope. Give me courage to move in faith, trusting that Your plans are good and full of life. Lord, I pray that You will refresh my spirit, order my steps, and fill this new season with purpose, peace, and joy. May my life become a testimony of Your goodness and a reflection of Your glory. Thank You for loving me unconditionally. You are great and greatly to be praise. In Jesus' Name, Amen

Living by the power of Christ's Resurrection

"I have been crucified with Christ; and it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself up for me." Galatians 2:20 (NASB)

Devotional Thought & Prayer:

Jesus Christ our risen Savior's resurrection allows us to be strengthen, renewed, and restored so we can rise above the old way of living and walk in the new life God has given. Because Jesus rose from the dead, His life, victory, and Spirit are working in us. As believers, we are not controlled by our old life that is full of habits, fears, disappointments, and challenges. Jesus became our strength to be able to live by faith and hope. Hope is alive in us because of the resurrection power that brought life to what was dead, dry, delayed or broken in our lives. "For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection, knowing this, that our old self was crucified with Him, in order that our body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be slaves to sin." Romans 6:5-6 (NASB)

Living by resurrection power is a motivator to allow Christ to live through us. His love shapes our actions, His Spirit guides our choices, and His victory gives us courage.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank You for the power of Christ's resurrection at work in my life. Help me to rise above fear, discouragement, and anything else that belongs to my old life. In Jesus' Name, Amen

Renewed for God's Purpose

"For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work among you will complete it by the day of Christ Jesus." Philippians 1:6 (NASB)

Devotional Thought & Prayer:

God renews us so we can walk in the purpose He has prepared for our lives. Through Christ, He refreshes our hearts, strengthens our faith, and gives us grace to move forward as an ambassador for His Kingdom. We are renewed to live for His glory and serve others with a willing heart. When God renews us, He prepares us for greater purpose and He gives us the grace, courage, and wisdom we need to serve faithfully and reflect on His love in every season. Renewal is God's way of calling us out of the world so we can represent kingdom living as a believer. "For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand so that we would walk in them." Ephesians 2:10 (NASB)

Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank You for making me new in Christ. Awaken my heart to the joy of this fresh start and help me walk in this freedom that You have given me. Replace fear with faith, hesitation with courage, and weariness with renewed strength. Let my life shine with Your grace and guide me into the purpose You have prepared for this new season. Help me to live each day with a heart ready to serve, a mind fixed on Your truth, and hands willing to do what honors You. May every step I take fulfill the calling that You have on my life. In Jesus' Name, Amen

A New Heart for a New Beginning

"Moreover, I will give you a new heart and put a new spirit within you..." Ezekiel 36:26a (NASB)

Devotional Thought & Prayer:

The focus is now on the heart, which is the inner life of a person. The heart is the place where our thoughts, desires, motives, and emotions reside. God renews the heart from within so we can follow Him with love, faith, and devotion. A new beginning becomes powerful when God renews the heart. He reaches into the deepest places of our lives with mercy, healing, and love, creating room for faith to grow again. What was hardened can become tender, what was wounded can become whole, and what felt empty can be filled with His Spirit. When God gives us a new heart, He prepares us to receive His direction with joy and to follow Him with renewed devotion. This is the beautiful work of grace: God reshaping us from within so we may step into the future with peace, strength, and holy expectation.

Prayer: Heavenly Father, thank You for Your promise to renew and restore my heart. Today, I open my heart to You, asking that You remove anything hardened, cold or resistant within me. Replace it with a heart that beats in rhythm with Your love – soft, tender, and responsive to Your voice. Fill me with Your Spirit and awaken a deeper desire to follow You. Prepare me to walk into this new season with peace, courage, and joyful obedience, trusting that You are shaping something beautiful within me. In Jesus' Name, Amen
